

VICTOR
VINCENT
DAVIES

Victor Davies, a true artistic virtuoso, effortlessly transcended the boundaries of music and painting, leaving an indelible mark on both realms. Born and raised in East London, to a Sierra Leonean father and English mother his journey as a musician initially took centre stage, igniting a passion that would eventually intertwine with his extraordinary talents as a painter.

From a young age, Victor was entranced by the captivating melodies of artists like Stevie Wonder and Curtis Mayfield. Inspired by the guitar strums of a friend, a member of the renowned '80s soul group Central Line, he set out on a musical path of his own culminating in world tours including eight in Japan alone and the release of many albums to critical acclaim. His first album gained immense praise and enthusiastic reviews – Q Magazine wrote that 'Davies' songs can sell sunshine to Australians.' His next album, 'Hoxton Popstars,' reached number one in Japan, and the track 'Fire' from that album remained on the charts for several weeks.

This harmonious interplay between music and painting brings a unique depth to his art, inviting viewers to engage not only with the visual spectacle but also to enjoy and experience his phenomenal music. Today, Victor Vincent Davies stands as a testament to the transformative power of artistic expression. His paintings adorn the walls of private collectors, while his melodic compositions and live performance continue to captivate listeners worldwide
